

As a Life Strategist and Leader, Niki Brown has one mission: to empower women to breakthrough their limitations, discover their greatness, and become more.

Known for her high-impact and dynamic teaching style; she is a life leader who embodies and teaches the philosophy that trapped within every woman is the ability to create her own doorway to greatness and success.

As a result of her own spiritual journey and life transformation, Niki has connected her passion and purpose in establishing a life development system which delivers impactful coaching, high energy empowerment events and specialized workshops to motivate women to discover and unlock their potential in every dimension of their lives.

To date, hundreds of women have experienced a life change through the effectiveness of Niki's empowerment strategies, life coaching principles, motivational speaking and seminars. For more than 15 years, Niki has inspired women to transition out of their "limited thinking" into "progressive living."

Niki is a Master's level counselor, certified life coach, ordained minister, and the author of, There Is More! 8 Steps To Embracing The Greater You. She is also the Founder and Host of the IGNITE Women's Empowerment Summit which is a two day annual event which draws hundreds of women from all over the region.

For over ten years, Niki served as the associate pastor of Family and Women's Ministries at Bethany Baptist Church in Lindenwold, NJ and led over 5000 women in yearly women's events, workshops, and activities. Having traveled extensively throughout the New Jersey/PA region, Niki has spoken at numerous Womens' retreats, conferences, services and workshops. In 2004 she founded and directed the Breath of Life Counseling for Generations Inc, in Lindenwold, New Jersey. Under her leadership, the program flourished and helped to improve the emotional, psychological and spiritual well-being of hundreds of people.

A native of New Jersey, Niki is married to her best friend Harold and they have one daughter Myka Simone. They currently reside in Lexington, KY.

Niki's daily philosophy is: "greatness doesn't just happen, you have to create it!"
