

James P. Heath spent his childhood years growing up in South Jersey ultimately graduating Winslow Township High School. Through time JP began to grow in his gift of music and worship leading, singing locally in the Tri-state and along the east coast. He served as the worship leader at Healing Wings Pentecostal Temple in Glassboro New Jersey alongside much of his family. He married Stephanie Heath in 2009 and transitioned to become the worship and youth leader at New Jerusalem House of God in Mt Holly New Jersey. Continuing in his faithful service JP developed even more in his calling for leading God's people in worship. In 2013 he began to serve as the Director of Music and Arts at Keys to Life Ministries in Mount Ephraim New Jersey all the way up until 2016 where he joined the church planting efforts of The Family Church of Voorhees New Jersey, as he presently serves as the Worship and Creative Production Coach. Over time JP has found that he is passionate about portraying authentic inspiration on any platform he is given. On the stage or off the stage JP knows he is called to influence and engage his community, and the culture, to pursue Christ ultimately finding their God given purpose. Above all else JP is committed to his first ministry as a husband to his wife Stephanie and together they parent three lovely sons, Aaron, Semaj and Mekhi.