

Christal Torres was born and raised in Camden, NJ. She attended Rowan University in Glassboro, NJ with the set goal of graduating with a dual major. Christal received her Bachelor's degrees with honors, in both Human Resources (HR) Management and Business Management. Christal is humbled by the accomplishment of being the first person in her family to obtain a college degree.

Christal possesses over ten years of HR Management experience, specializing in employee relations and organizational development. Her career has provided her with experiences in multiple industries, including federal contracting overseas in Bagram, Afghanistan. Christal currently holds a senior HR management position within the retail industry.

Being a God fearing woman, Christal is dedicated to pursuing her created purpose. She is also dedicated to being a positive role model for her six year old daughter, and building lasting memories with her family and friends.
