Jacqueline V. Mayfield is the President and Founder of Where is Your Money, Inc. (WIYM). An organization that is concerned about the financial well being of teens, college students and adults. She is the author of “Where is Your $$$”, a faith-based step-by-step system and practical guide that provides a blueprint to assist with paying bills on-time, eliminating debt, and developing a plan for future spending. In 2004, Jackie wrote her second book “Step Over into Wealth”. The goal of this book is to bridge the communication gap between generations to ensure that no one is overlooked through the money management process. She has also produced a motivational CD entitled, “It’s Your Time: Stop Struggling and Soar”. Jackie is a business leader and instructor who has been an entrepreneur for more than twenty years. As a civic leader, she has developed strategic partnerships that have enabled her to creatively share her wealth of knowledge with numerous community development organizations (Department of Labor, T.D. Jakes’ MegaFest Book Signing, African American Female Entrepreneurs Alliance, Community College of Philadelphia, Eastern University Esperanza, WDAS 1480 AM, WPVI Channel 17, former co-host on Gospel Highway 11, and many more). Jackie has been empowering and teaching people how to better manage their finances by conducting one-on-one counseling sessions, teaching courses, and speaking at seminars and workshops for over fifteen years.
